District Council Secretariat, Chakma Autonomous District Council.

About:

The District Council Secretariat is the Legislative Wing of the Chakma Autonomous District Council. It is the Law making institution, wherein all the importance Rules and Regulations are framed. The Chakma Autonomous District Council was created under the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution of India on the 2nd April, 1972, which was upgraded into an Autonomous District Council on the 29th April, 1972.

Unlike the Union or the State Governments, the District Council Secretariat or Legislative Department is not fully Independent or separate from the Executive. Because the Legislative Department is treated like other usual departments of the Council. The appointments, promotion, posting & transfer of officers and staffs of the District Council Secretariat are controlled by the Executive Committee of the Council. No separate budget is made for the District Council Secretariat or Legislative Department.

Functions and Duties:

- Summoning & Prorogation of the Chakma Autonomous District Council Session.
- Salary, Allowances and Pension of the MDCs.
- Liaison with leaders and whips of various parties and groups, representing in the Session.
- Matters relating to powers, privileges and immunities of the MDCs.
- Appointment of Advisory Committee.
- Planning and Co-ordination of Legislative and other official business in the Session.
- All Legislative matters.

Power and Duties of officers and employees:

The Secretary to the District Council looks after the District Council Secretariat. All department Inter-departmental and Official correspondences are made by him, and importantly, all decisions are made by him. The Under Secretary and the Office Superintendence assist him in carrying out the official function.

Different files works are distributed among other subordinate staffs who are responsible for disposing of all cases put up and prioritizing it.

Procedure followed in decision makings process including channels of supervision and accountability:

Any matters of financial implication or of serious nature are taken care of by the Secretary to District Council after consultation with the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman. In the absence of the former, supervision of Execution of any task is maintained by the Secretary to District Council. Accountability for its execution rests with him.
